BEST OF MENDOZA WINERIES

DAY 1

9:00 am

Depart for Giménez Riili winery from city center

10:30 am

Giménez Riili winery: tour and tasting

Owned and run personally by the Gimenez Riili family, this premium boutique winery is located in the heart of the Uco Valley. It offers an authentic Argentine experience, with a view into their winemaking process during intimate winery tours. Guests can enjoy a tasting outside, overlooking the newly planted vines and mountains, while savoring their single varietal Torrontes, Malbec, Merlot and Sparkling wine. The optional asado is recommended as a delicious lunch option.

Address: Ruta Provincial 94 s/n, Los Sauces, Tunuyán
Tel: 261-498-7863, www.gimenezriili.com
Cost: US$20 p/p

12:00 pm

The Vines of Mendoza winery: tour and tasting

Taste top quality Argentine wines from the barrel and the bottle and learn about different Argentine varietals and terroir. Participate in a blending session and sharpen your skills with the expert staff, learning what it takes to taste wine like a master. Tastings will show you how to savor and identify wines from six months – two years in age. Plus, you will taste five of The Vines’ own wines.

Address: Ruta Provincial 94 s/n, Los Sauces, Tunuyán
Tel: 261-438-1031, juliette@vinesofmendoza.com
Cost: US$20 p/p

1:30 pm

Lunch: Rincón Atamisque

Tour the cutting-edge Atamisque winery and visit their cozy restaurant that specializes in trout – a welcome respite from meat. They source almost everything from their own property.

Address: Ruta Provincial 86 Km 30, San José, Tupungato
Average cost: US$50 – 70 p/p
DAY 1

4:00 pm  Return to hotel

9:00 pm  Dinner: Azafran Restaurant

Azafrán, meaning saffron, exudes the warmth and exoticism of the spice that inspired its name. Chefs cook meat to perfection and lend a creative touch to each dish from its eclectic menu.

Address: Av. Sarmiento 765, Mendoza
Tel: 261-429-4200, www.azafranresto.com
Average cost: US$50 – 70 p/p
